

Times of Shrewsbury

May 2023

50th ANNIVERSARY!

There is one place to glimpse the character and characters that have made Shrewsbury as we know it today. It has all been recorded in a publication created by and for Shrewsberries, and we have all looked for it in our mailboxes each month for 50 years! It's our local "newspaper":

Times of Shrewsbury!

In May 1973 the Times went to press using landline telephones, a typewriter, a mimeograph machine, stapler, and many helping hands. It was then mailed with an 8¢ postage stamp! With a circulation of "about 200," the first issue was 10 pages (legal size) and cost $33.40. By the second issue 20 contributors had given $96 and the Times was up and running!

Initially the paper was produced on the very temperamental and messy mimeograph machine at Spring Lake Ranch and at the Shrewsbury Community Church. Then for many years it was printed in someone's home on a machine owned by the Times. In December 1984 the Times was finally sent to a professional printer for the first time.

By 1976 full page drawings by Shrewsbury artists began to "grace" the covers and continued to appear periodically until the early 1980s. The Calendar of Events again returned to the front page along with a hand-lettered banner until 1999. The current banner has been in use since 2011 and front pages have featured articles, drawings, and photos about and by Shrewsberries. For many years there were 12 issues per year but somewhere along the way the editors thought a holiday was in order so there are now only 11 issues per year!

In the third issue the first photos appeared, recording a flash flood that roared through Cuttingsville on June 30, 1973. However, photos were very sparse in the paper prior to the new millennium issues. Even colored paper and colored ink have been used. Articles have focused on many aspects of life in Shrewsbury, and have been presented in single and double columns, but always on legal size paper until March 2011 when the paper began being printed on standard size 8 1/2 x 11 paper.

For many years there was a "Social News" section in the paper with snippets of news that seemed quite personal to be in print (i.e. hernia operation and recovery, travel plans, etc), but today we find the same information on social media to a much larger audience!

The paper is still delivered to each mailbox in Shrewsbury, but in 2011 it also became accessible "online" at the Town website. Also, the Shrewsbury Historical Society website posts all issues from 2011 to present. Special color editions about the maple sugaring in Shrewsbury, the Laurel Glen Estate, and "The Moose" are also available online.

There have been over 560 issues published in the last 50 years, and there are copies of each one stored in five boxes at the Historical Society. Today there's no use of the mimeograph or typewriter, very little use of the telephone, and postage costs a lot more! We use an array of computer Front pages in the early years featured the Calendar of Events. programs to produce the paper...and a lot of old-fashioned patience! In the early years it was truly a communal effort as people gathered around Neale Biddle's dining room table to collate and staple.

> Today it takes fewer people to get the paper out but it still needs the information and financial support from Shrewsbury's organizations, individuals, and advertisers.

> On the front page of the first edition in May 1973, the founders wrote "it is hoped that every organization, club and individual will contribute ideas, suggestions, points of view, creative writing, questions, etc. etc. Let's hear from Shrewsbury-ites what turns them on." With that kind of continuing support, the Times of Shrewsbury will celebrate many more anniversaries. Article by Chryl Martin

TOWN CLERK'S OFFICE HOURS ARE CHANGING!

That's right, you read it correctly! The new schedule (shown below) will go into effect starting May 15, 2023. It's been many years since there's been a permanent change to the schedule, and this decision was not made lightly. During my now two years here as Town Clerk, I have had repeated requests to include some time outside of regular business hours so people could come in to do what they needed at the office without the need to miss work, and the new schedule – in part - should help accommodate that. Also, keeping in mind that it was becoming rare to have another town official working in the office alongside me while it was open to help cover if I needed to step out for a moment, and in consideration of my own schedule, the decision was made to slightly alter the hours.

New Hours:

Monday: 8:30am-12:30pm & 1:30pm-3:30pm

Tuesday: 7:00am-1:00pm

Wednesday: 8:30am-12:30pm & 1:30pm-3:30pm

Thursday: 10:00am-4:00pm

Friday, Saturday, and Sunday: CLOSED

As always, if you absolutely can't make it in during office hours and need to physically come to the Town Office, please call or email so we can set up an appointment outside of the times listed. ~Submitted by Megan LaChance, Town Clerk

SHREWSBURY VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT

With the arrival of spring maple sugaring season, many of the SVFD members were away from the direct department activities and weekly meetings, but all were ready to respond to incidents when needed.

Since the last Times issue, there were three responses. Two of them were for mutual aid to Clarendon, the first being a massive brush and grass fire on the Airport Road near the East Clarendon Cemetery. Along with several other departments, the SVFD provided tanker support for water and manpower to suppress that fire. Dry conditions and high wind complicated matters; but good firemanship prevailed, and the fire was contained and extinguished. A second mutual aid call came from Clarendon on April 18 in the early morning hours. This was to a fully involved trailer fire located on Route 103 behind the East Clarendon store. Several departments responded, including the SVFD. Manpower and water were provided, and the fire was put out. Unfortunately, the trailer was a total loss. A woman and her three dogs escaped. The Red Cross was contacted to help her find temporary shelter and care for her and the dogs. A third call this month was in Northam for the sounding of a carbon monoxide alarm. A quick response for investigation and to clear the building resulted in no injuries.

Interestingly, three of our new members, Hal Niblack, Mark Goodwin, and Lee Martin had attended the Southern Vermont Fire School held at Mill River Union High School the previous weekend before the Clarendon Trailer Fire. That school helped prepare them for learning to size up a situation and deal with the real fire that they wound up being involved in within just a few days. Attending local fire schools and taking coursework are great beginnings for our department members to learn the skills necessary to be prepared and respond to complicated emergency situations. Hal and Mark have been members for most of the past year, while Lee was just voted in as a full member at the April business meeting.

Smoke Detectors:

Besides having a great fire department, the best thing for everyone in the community to think about is fire safety. Although the lady in Clarendon lost her home and her belongings, a working smoke detector saved her life and gave her the necessary time to escape the fire. Each of us should routinely check our own detectors and at least minimally install new batteries. If your detectors are over 10 years old, they should be replaced. This one action could save your life and the lives of your loved ones and pets.

Burn Permits:

An important preventative measure for all is that when there is no snow on the ground, fire permits must be obtained from our fire wardens. Kevin Brown (802-775-6194) or Al Ridlon Jr. (902-282-3642) should be called to request a burn permit. They can inform you how to conduct a safe burn and what can legally be burned. If conditions are safe, they can issue the permit over the phone. If conditions are hazardous, they would ask that you wait until weather conditions for safe burning improve. Fire wardens are trained and updated as to burning conditions by the state of Vermont. We are fortunate to have long time, experienced fire wardens in Shrewsbury, and they will be happy to assist you with your requests. Illegal, non-permitted burns are unsafe and can have legal consequences if they get out of control. Sometimes fires are reported by people who see or smell smoke. If the burns are found to be illegal, the department will respond and must extinguish the fire. Springtime can produce some very dry conditions in fields and woods, so be safe. If you need to burn brush.... call for a permit. In all cases... be aware, and be fire safe.

JUNE 3, 2023 12:00-4:00pm SHREWSBURY MEETING HOUSE 88 Lottery Road, Shrewsbury, Vermont

An important part of any community is celebration, and the Ranch is no different. We celebrate as many holidays as we can-traditional holidays and those we invent ourselves. One of our most beloved invented holidays is our celebration of Spring.

It began as our take on May Day, complete with a dance around the maypole. Because May Day is typically celebrated on May 1, and Vermont weather in early May is dubious we bumped May Day to the end of the month and renamed it Maymorial. Each year, we crown a king and gueen with garlands, decorate our old navy truck for them to ride in, and process behind the truck to one of our fields for a May Day dance.

A few years ago, a resident at the Ranch suggested a fun run, and we added another festivity to our springtime celebrations. Ramp It Up! is a 5k/10k run around the Ranch named for the seasonal allium that lines the trails at this time of year. Ramps a wild onion prized by foodies and foragers alike-have a pungent, garlicky flavor and beautiful, edible leaves that are often tinged with purple or red. They are only around for a few weeks, and their ephemeral nature is part of their allure. As for the mission of the Ranch, taking time to recognize these gifts of the land helps us appreciate and redefine our relationship to food, farming, and the Earth. Ramps are sustainably harvested and turned into a bevy of delectable treats, some of which are shared by Ranchers at dinner after the run.

This year, Ramp It Up! is evolving once again. The event is headed by a current resident, and for the first time ever, we are welcoming the public to join us for the celebration.

Ramp It Up! will take place on

May 18 from 1:30-4:00pm (Rain date: May 25) Members of the public are invited to walk, run, or join as a spectator.

Ranch-made snacks will be available at water tables along the route. There will also be activities around the property that will give visitors a glimpse of the work our community does and the fun we have together. Whether or not you can make it to the Ranch, you can sponsor our participants by donating at www.springlakeranch.org/rampitup. Half of all monies raised will go to the Ranch's scholarship program, and the other half will go to a community organization selected by residents.

If you would like to join us for Ramp It Up! this year, keep an eye on the Spring Lake Ranch Facebook page for updates and information. ~Article by Anna Sutton

Gary Salmon Nominated for Special Recognition

The following was submitted to nominate Gary Salmon for special recognition at the Urban and Community Forestry at their Arbor Day Conference in May.

Gary was a special friend of the Shrewsbury Conservation Commission. He truly was the Shrewsbury Lorax - he spoke for the trees. His service to our natural resources and community will be sorely missed.

eloquently wrote He monthly entries in our local Shrewsbury Times on all sorts of interesting topics related to trees, which often included fabulous photos. initiated projects grabbed the interest of many in town. He had people out trying to identify the largest tree in town and our library entrance was filled with photos and measurements of some whoppers! He gathered volunteers to take a survey of all the ash trees in town to plan for the EAB infestation sure to come. He led several SCC Walks and Talks to help residents identify trees and shrubs. Gary worked with all town representatives on so many different projects where the protection of trees was crucial -involving decisions on utility line placement, road and culvert placement, planting native trees to stabilize a road reconstruction project - the list goes on. We all will miss Gary's enthusiasm and love of both people and trees!

Concert to Honor Gary Salmon May 21, 2023 at 4pm

The Rutland Area Chorus and Festival String Orchestra (which includes several Shrewsberries) will perform the Five Mystical Songs by Ralph Vaughan Williams on May 21 at 4pm at Grace Congregational Church in Rutland.

The Turtle Dove - a Lament for Oboe and Strings, by New England composer, Gwyneth Walker, was commissioned by Grace Church in memory of Gary Salmon with funds given in memory of Gary by his friends and family. Following the world premiere, the RAC will perform the folk song, The Turtle Dove, arranged by Vaughan Williams in honor of Gary and his wonderful contribution to the choral music scene in Vermont (Gary was a long time member of the Grace Church Sanctuary Choir and the Vermont Symphony Orchestra Chorus).

The second world premier is a new arrangement of Alastair Stout's song cycle, Sing a Song of Seasons, performed by Amy, and Dan Frostman, and the Grace Festival String Orchestra. The concert will also include the Capriol Suite, a wonderful collection of baroque-style dances for string orchestra, by the English composer, Peter Warlock.

Your Inner Fish: A Journey into the 3.5 Billion-Year History of the Human Body by Neil Shubin

Science convinces author Neil Shubin, and, eventually we incredulous readers that the fundamental model and structure of DNA is so perfect in its genius that it is the ultimate blueprint linked across many (most?) species! The excitement of this discovery drives scientists like Shubin and his colleagues to devote their lives seeking answers. He writes (page 3):

Typical summers of my adult life are spent in snow and sleet, cracking rocks on cliffs well north of the Arctic Circle. Most of the time I freeze, get blisters, and find absolutely nothing. But if I have any luck, I find ancient fish bones. That may not sound like buried treasure to most people, but to me, it is more valuable than gold.

Neil Shubin is a paleontologist and professor of anatomy who co-discovered Tikaalik, the "fish with hands." This account of the ultimate puzzle is written in readable, likeable prose. The author is so joyful in his delivery that it made me feel like he was the proverbial kid in the candy shop.

Shrewsbury Historical Society.

Thank You

The Historical Society thanks the 204 voters of our town who said "yes" to Article 12 request for $2500 to help keep up the maintenance of this historical church building that is home to the history of our town.

Fifty Years Ago

In May of 1973, the Times of Shrewsbury appeared for the first time. On its cover it stated that "this first copy launches a real adventure in community partnership". Our town has been enriched with each and every issue. Kudos to the Times' editors and staff.

Memorial Day

Originally called "Decoration Day", it signified the day to decorate the grave-sites of men and women who gave their lives to protect our country during wars. On page 220 of the history book which is titled "Shrewsbury Vermont - Our Town As It Was" by Dawn D. Hance, there is a wonderful photo of a small parade on School Street (now Town Hill Road), showing a veteran, dignitaries and school children. On the same page it reads "Much research has been done to locate the service records of these people so that the flag of the United States can fly proudly over their graves." To this day, Memorial Day, Shrewsbury grave-sites are decorated with fresh American flags, supported by American Legion and Veterans of Foreign war, and school children.

The Poppy Lady

It all started with a poem written by Lt. Col. John McCrae of Canada in 1915, entitled "In Flanders Fields."

An American woman, Moina Michael, so moved by the poem made a pledge to wear a red poppy made of paper, and sold with proceeds to assist in helping disabled veterans and families. Michael is commemorated by a U.S. 3 cent stamp for her efforts as the "Poppy Lady" in 1948.

As a little girl I remember seeing men and women selling the paper poppies before Decoration Day on the busy streets of Hempstead, L.I. My Dad always bought one and kept it in his car.

CCC Camp in Shrewsbury

In 1933, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed the legislation for the formation of the Civilian Conservation Corps. to help recovery of the depression in the 1930s. Over a million men, ages 18 to 25, (with 4000 sent to Vermont's 20 camps alone) entered the enlistment of six months and were sent to prepare camps which they would build, and from there they would build forest roads and trails, construct campgrounds and state parks, stock streams with fish, improve wildlife habitats and use other forestry practices.

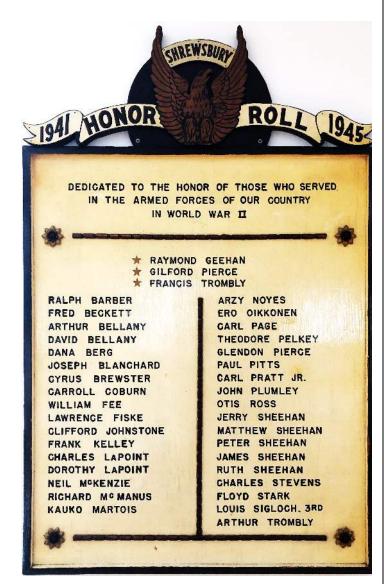

On a mountainside in North Shrewsbury parts of an installed ski tow rope machine were found and was featured in a recent issue of the Times.

Did you know that the enrollees were required to send home $25 of the $30 monthly allotment which they would receive?

The camp hours were from 6am to 10pm. Educational programs were offered to the men during their leisure hours. The camp closed on May 27, 1937.

Marjorie Pierce listed the names of Shrewsbury CCC members and the camps they worked in, as follows: Raymond Barber, Northam; Richard Buckey, Northam; Bennie A. Carrara, Northam; Bennie D. Carrara, Peru; Charles Graham, Northam. Howard Lavalley, Northam; Gilford Pierce, Northam, Peru and E. Burke; Ralph Plumley, Northam and Clyde Ross, Northam. Plans are underway to present a special program given by Marty Podskoch, author of books related to this special time in America. When Mr. Podskoch visited the museum last year he was impressed with the museum/s panels exhibiting the Northam camp. Stay tuned, details will be in future issue.

SNO-BIRD NEWS

The 2022-2023 season is over as of April 16. For us the season did end up having some very nice riding in March and the first part of April. We were the only club in Rutland County grooming in late March and the last night I was out was April 2. The last two weeks we groomed some of the Mount Holly club's trails also as their Tucker was broken.

Our week average out of the 16-week season is 11.8; this year we did 10 weeks. We were down 25% of the total mileage that we could have groomed. That was a lot better than it was going to be starting into March.

Scott Ryan and Dave Fucci have been out taking down our signs so they do not get destroyed. I have been out locking the gates along with Scott and Dad locked the ones around their place. Three more signs need to come down and the Tucker tracks need to get covered for the summer to protect them from the sun and some other odds and ends and then we will be ready to start thinking of trail work when things dry up.

Thanks to everyone who helped in any way this grooming season as our trails would not have been as nice as they were once we got snow to work with. Early in the season the trails were not as good as we like but with lack of snow and not smooth ground to start with, we can only do so much. We have to try and get snow pulled in from the sides to try and smooth them up and then we need consistent low temps with no rain which did not happen for most of the season.

The club has one more meeting this season which is election of officers. If anyone is interested in getting involved in any way come to our May meeting on May 9 at the Southside Steakhouse in Rutland. It starts at 7pm, we always like to see new faces and ideas.

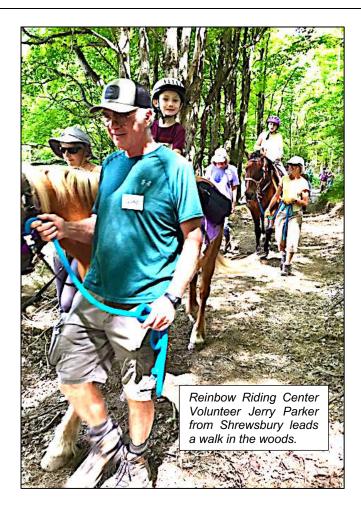

closed the Governor Clement Shelter on April 15th. Everything was pretty bare!

I hope some of you got out to enjoy our trails this winter, and I hope that you had a nice time that is what we work for! Hope to see you on the trails next winter season!

Update on Senior Support Group, now "GREEN MOUNTAIN NEIGHBORS"!

We now have a name for our all-volunteer, non-profit, organization: Green Mountain Neighbors.

Our mission is to help seniors successfully live-in-place in Mount Holly, Shrewsbury and Wallingford.

During the past month or so we distributed, and have now compiled, a Needs Assessment Survey to residents over 60 years of age. The results of over 100 returned surveys (from the three towns) showed highest needs in the areas of Social Activities, Transportation, and Help with Household Tasks.

The Steering Committee is currently working on:

- Volunteer Survey to help us match volunteers with specific jobs
- Application for 501c3 non-profit status
- Logo and marketing plan
- Fundraising for startup/"seed" money (for printing materials, filing fees, etc.)
- Planning for Community Meetings in late spring to provide a full overview for residents

Green Mountain Neighbors will be an all-volunteer, neighbor-helping-neighbor program.

As we grow in volunteer support, we hope to be able to address other areas of needs. If you are interested in being a volunteer, or just want to understand more about what we're doing, please email: Mount Holly: to Kathy Leber kleber@vermontel.net Shrewsbury: to Linda Fontana lafhaha_2000@yahoo.comWallingford: to Sandy Eddy seddy@vermontel.net

NEWS FROM MONTPELIER

Hello from Montpelier. We just passed S.5, "The Affordable Heat Act", the House is proposing some amendments from the version the Senate passed, so now the bodies need to negotiate the difference between those two versions. But I have little doubt the bill will pass this session in some form. I want to talk about that bill and about the budget, because as I often say in these articles, the budget continues to be the most substantive thing we will do up here and is the most overlooked or otherwise subject to a lot of misinformation.

First on S.5. This bill has changed A LOT in its path through the state house. Some of the coverage and talking points have been misleading, focus on pieces that were removed at earlier stages in the legislative process or focus on things that were proposed but never added at different stages. This bill is complicated, but the impetus for it is simple. Most of us, including my household, rely on propane, heating oil, kerosene or other heating fuel that is subject to price swings beyond our control. My household uses ~100 gallons of propane per month in the winter, we use it primarily for hot water, but also supplemental/backup heat on the below-zero days. In April 2021. I paid $2.49/gallon for propane, in April 2022. $3.52/gallon and in April 2023, $2.69/gallon. That $100 may not sound like much to some, but it's hard for us. The purpose of this bill is to create a plan to help Vermonters use less of these fuels, mostly through weatherization or installing new heating technologies, things that are financially out of reach for many Vermonters. But this bill does not implement any tax or fee. At different times, opponents have suggested this bill includes a 70-cent tax on heating fuels, but that is misleading. The purpose of the bill again is to design a plan and study what fee would be necessary for that plan. But the bill is designed for the legislature to have to weigh in again before any such tax/fee could go into effect. The fact is that these heating fuels are finite resources, we will run out of them, and their prices will continue to fluctuate wildly. Vermonters will be better served if they do not have to rely on them and can transition to more stable fuels for heat. This bill is a first step in that direction.

Quickly on the budget. I've just seen a lot in the press about the Governor chiding the legislature on the budget and I want to add some context and quick thoughts. I think it's important and lost in the back and forth that everyone agrees on about 98% of the spending. The major differences come in right now because the Governor would like us to set aside a certain amount of money that we don't need until next year or the year after to secure matching federal funds. Instead of doing that, the legislature is proposing to invest more in childcare and standing up our proposed paid leave program. He doesn't support those investments and would like us to save that money instead. We have full faith that we will be able to find the monies to secure those matching funds next session, even making these investments now. That is the major difference between us at the moment.

As always please reach out about this or anything else anytime, I do ask that you call/text my phone or reach out to my new email address as opposed to any other, I just get too much spam on all others.

and squirrels--All in this Together, we forth cautious shoots and buds. Even the Point Road in Shrewsbury. humblest weed appears perfect in its first form. In the trees, a sprinkling of flowers and fluffy catkins becomes an outpouring of green intention.

Celebrate our trees! Arbor Day April 28, Earth Day April 22, 492-3792 or hamgam@vermontel.net remember our Lorax who spoke for them.

A recent study from the National Park Service focuses on forest regeneration, "the ability of each forest to sustain itself through the growth and survival of seedlings and saplings that replace large trees as they die." They found that most eastern National Park forests are greatly at risk from deer browse and Invasive Plants. Well, these park forests are not islands! What about the rest of our forests? They are facing the same threats, to varying degrees.

Deer live in our forests, lovely creatures. We love to see them, and many enjoy the meat they provide the successful hunter. They were here in their numbers long before European settlement, hunted by native peoples and large predators. There were seedlings and saplings enough to sustain them in their forest home. Large scale clearing of forests for agriculture and home building plus the extirpation of most large predators has upset any balance. So, let's not blame the deer.

Humans have created the conditions wherein the deer inhabit smaller forest areas - many trying to regenerate from timber harvest. Humans have made inroad after inroad into our forests, fragmenting habitat for creatures other than ourselves and opening avenues for non-native plants to spread. The deer prefer the native plants and spare the invasives, which then take over, impoverishing the ecosystem. The deer then browse ever smaller areas of regeneration, preventing the formation of understory and 2nd tier canopy, essential for healthy diverse forests.

Remember that our butterflies come from caterpillars that need certain plants, trees, shrubs to feed on. Our birds rely on these caterpillars and other native insects to feed their young. We need native plants to thrive so that the rest of the ecosystem can thrive. That includes us! We are a powerful part of our ecosystems. Humans must work to restore balance here. It is our collective and individual Human responsibility to act on behalf of the Life that sustains us. Success to the Hunter, of deer or invasive plants! Success to the Planter of trees and native shrubs! Success to the Seeker of knowledge and ways to restore balance, create more understanding of how to work With the Earth.

They define a sense of place and while they have experienced changes, Vermont's small towns and villages are poised to welcome a new and exciting future. The day-long meet-up will focus on village revitalization, celebrating success, identifying challenges, and exploring solutions.

Join the Preservation Trust of Vermont and the Department of Housing and Community Development on Tuesday, June 6, 2023, for the first-ever "Village Meet-Up," hosted by the Town of Strafford.

Morning Sessions

The Future is Rural

The most exciting models for community and economic development in Vermont are being developed and piloted in villages. A panel of rural community champions will discuss the innovative strategies they are employing to meet challenges and leverage assets. Specific strategies will include outdoor recreation, community supported enterprises, and repurposed community centers.

Tools for Village Revitalization

Want to revitalize your village but are unsure where to begin? A panel of community leaders and funders will share examples of inventive programs that are reshaping the way we think about place and investment in Vermont's villages.

Afternoon Sessons

The Strafford Story

The Justin Smith Morrill Homestead and the picturesque town green crowned by the Town House draw visitors to Strafford, but many other buildings tell the story of those who built and sustain the community. A local panel will share the work of residents, local government, and civic groups to create a vibrant town through citizen engagement with history, the arts, and community development.

New Systems for a New Future

The world has changed and so have the ways in which rural leaders are thinking about systems. A panel will focus on common issues for any community (housing, land ownership, placemaking) and the creative approaches leaders are taking to rethink the future of rural.

Sign up for local walking tours during check-in and attend a festive ice cream social with music on the Strafford Town Green to end the day!

The event will be held at the Strafford Town House. Sessions will run from 9:00 am to 3:30 pm with the ice cream social to follow. The cost including lunch is $25. Space is limited to 100 participants. Registration closes at 5pm on Monday, May 22. Register soon! For additional info, visit www.ptvermont.org

Note: This looks like a session that someone from Shrewsbury should attend. Although I will not be able to attend this event, I have attended various Preservation Trust of Vermont gatherings in the past, and they are excellent! I got many ideas for the store and much support from them. ~Sally Deinzer

Community Social" Event

Join the Council on Rural Development (VCRD) for their inaugural "Community Social" on the shores of Lake Bomoseen on June 13, 2023.

The event is for community members, volunteers, leaders, and partners committed to Vermont. The short program will feature speakers from across the state as well as updates and ways to engage on VCRD initiatives and programs that connect with rural communities around Vermont. There will also be time for networking and connecting with friends old and new.

This is a critical time to be focused on our small cities and towns, and VCRD is a dynamic partnership of national, state, local, non-profit, and private leaders who listen to the opportunities and challenges in Vermont's communities and support those who dedicate themselves to the progress of their communities and Vermont.

We'll be sharing more details and how to register soon - and spaces are limited. Visit our website to learn more:

Shrewsbury Conservation Commission Trail Camera Picture of the month

This month we have a capture of a fisher from Diane Jakobsen. The fisher stops by this area regularly to leave scent.

Michelle Green, Taylor and Todd Frederick captured a mink carrying a crayfish. It's possible there may be young nearby!

Finally, Linda Shelvey was lucky to have a red and a gray fox pose in the daylight for a picture. A nice comparison of the different markings between the two foxes.

Michelle Suker photographed a barred owl hunting from the top of the Fretz's mailbox.

If you have a picture or track to share email Linda Shelvey Lpurdyshel@gmail.com

Why Do We Shop at Pierce's?

The reasons are too numerous to clearly explain in this short article. But to list them briefly:

Pierce's is an important part of Shrewsbury's history, and we are so lucky to have a fully functioning village general store that has been in business since 1865 and still serving our small community, now better than ever! It's the fulfillment of Marjorie Pierce's wish and legacy, to have the store continue to serve the community she loved and called home for almost 100 years.

Pierce's has what we generally need without driving to Rutland. A great wine and beer selection, fresh pastries, dairy, soda, ice cream, fresh fish, meats, fresh veggies, bread, coffee, gifts, bulk grains, canned goods, candy, cards, candles, you name it. Yes, it's not Hannaford's. It's a small country store catering to our community, stocking what its customers buy. If you want it and its not there, just ask for it and it could there for you next time you visit. Call ahead for convenience.

Pierce's supports Shrewsbury! Last year Pierce's "recycled" $73,000 back into the community for local goods and services, $64,000 in payroll to Shrewsberries and $4,500 in Town taxes. A local business supporting local folks and businesses.

Pierce's is a place to meet and visit with your neighbors, catch up on "the news" and stay in touch. With wi-fi, tables on the porch and picnic tables, it's a place to relax, enjoy your coffee and watch the "traffic" go by in a quiet village setting. Also, there are regular wine tastings, beer tastings, and special events with great food.

Small village general stores were historically essential to towns. They were where you generally got everything you couldn't grow or make at home. However, in today's economy with mega stores, Amazon and easy transportation, small stores can no longer support a shopkeeping owner-family. Marjorie's wise planning, by turning the store over to the Preservation Trust of Vermont, gives Shrewsbury a way to maintain its heritage and history, while also providing a convenient and unique place to shop right here close to home.

Pierce's is not located on a State highway, drawing in tourist traffic to a "cute country store". The store's continued success is largely dependent on it serving the folks in our small town. Buying goods at Pierce's will ensure the store continues its mission to serve Shrewsbury, and to grow and change as needed to serve our small town. Those are the reasons we shop at Pierce's!

See you at the store! ~Mark and Connie Youngstrom

Everybody knows Vermonters are famous for our ice cream, and Shrewsberries are no different! We are ramping up our stockpile for summer, including from our friends at Wilcox and Strafford, and we will be slinging Biggy Iggy and 802 bars as quickly as they come in! Not an ice cream fan? No sweat, we have some other frozen treats, including gelato from our friends at Larson and frozen yogurt from Wilcox! Orders come in every two weeks, and special-order pricing is available if you want to get a case or even just a few of any of the options we carry.

Our baked goods are still coming in a few days a week, with Button Hill coming in on Wednesdays and Saturdays, Jones Donuts on Sundays, Rob's cinnamon rolls on Mondays, and The Bakery bringing cookies on Wednesdays. If demand continues to increase, we may be able to add even more options as the summer goes on!

If you want something a little more decadent, Rob J. will be making some of his famous cupcakes for Mother's Day! Due to high demand, these will be by special order only. Springtime means beer season! Our neighbors at Mount Holly Beer Company will be joining us for a beer tasting on May 26 to share some of their most popular flavors. Come try some new options out – what you like will help us decide which of their beers we will stock throughout the summer!

ANNUAL MEETING FOLLOW UP

The annual meeting was a great success, with large attendance from a ton of members who are interested in helping the store succeed, so thank you all for coming and for you input! For those who couldn't make it by, the upshot is that we are continuing to improve and experiment with new options without abandoning popular and successful items and programs. We are trending in the right direction, and we are putting new procedures and policies in place that will help correct issues we have previously had. The goal is to now and, in the future, to continue to be a place for the entire community to enjoy, whether you want to buy local gifts, groceries, snacks, or lunch, or if you just want to come hang out and use the wifi or play some music! A big thank you to the dozens of volunteers and employees who work diligently to keep this community space going, as well as our customers who stop by to enjoy our goods.

BABY WATCH 2023

I will be heading out on paternity leave toward the middle of the month and plan to be out for about a month, but don't worry, we have the best staff around and they are all ready, willing, and able to take the helm! Thank you to everybody for all of your support and we look forward to introducing the newest Shrewsberry to the world!
