New Business/ Open to the Public: The Selectboard discussed the Rutland Regional Planning Commission's proposed 2026 Regional Plan, and its association with Act 59 and Act 181. The Regional Plan has the potential to have a significant impact on town residents by restricting development rights and which properties will trigger an Act 250 permit requirement. This could add a significant cost to any landowner intending to build on their property. There will be another open discussion at the next meeting on 5/6, the Board encourages residents to attend the meeting.

Review Minutes: A. Korzun made a motion to accept the 4/1/2026 Selectboard meeting minutes. Seconded by M. Cimonetti. Approved.
